NEW YORK. TUESDAY. JANUARY 10, 1905. - Copyright, 1905, by The Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

MRS. GELSHENEN DENIES ALL.

SAYS AT CHERBOURG SHE DOESN'T WANT TO MARRY MORSE.

Knows Nothing of the Divorce Tangle payments to their source, Mr. Jerome be--Willing to Return to New York if the Judiciary Desires Her or if Jerome Brings Her Further Into the Case.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. CHEBBOURG, Jan. 9 .- Mrs. W. H. Gelshenen of New York, whose name has been prominently mentioned in connection with the Morse-Dodge divorce tangle in that city, arrived here to-day on the steamer however, did not appear on the passenger

She landed with her son Walter, and was Naples, where, it is said, Mrs. Gelshenen at the table during the vovage from New York, being confined to her room fby sea-sickness. The correspondent of THE SUN interviewed her soon after her arrival. She was dressed completely in black and looked ill and worried. She said:

"I am in no way implicated in the Dodge-Morse tangle. The assertion that I furnished Dodge money with which to fight his extradition from Texas is absolutely untrue and ridiculous. I do not even know Dodge by sight.

"My trip to Europe was arranged months ago. The revelations in the Dodge case did not cause it in the slightest. "My relations with Mr. Morse are purely those of a business friend. He was my husband's business friend and partner. "How could I desire to marry Mr. Morse when he has a wife already? The charge is too absurd. I do not wish to marry Mr. Morse or anybody else. The report that endeavored to aid in the annulment of the Morse marriage in order to marry Mr. Morse is a black lie. I had no hand in the matter," When asked what she would do in case District Attorney Jerome secured an indictment against her, Mrs. Gelshenen replied: "It is impossible that he can do so, because I have no connection with the tangle. Should Mr. Jerome, as you suggest, bring my name further into the matter, or should the mediately cancel my arrangements to spend the winter in Cairo and return to New York. "I wish it to be distinctly understood that I have not the slightest interest in or connection with the Morses' domestic

The substance of this despatch was read last night to District Attorney Jerome, and appeared to surprise him. He asked that the part about Mrs. Gelshenen's willingness to give up her trip to Cairo be read over to him. Then, according to his habit, he positively refused to discuss any phase of the Dodge-Morse case.

MRS.GELSHENEN WAS IN NEWARK

on Her in New York. It became known in Newark yesterday that Mrs. Gelshenen was at the Continental Hotel in Newark while District Attorney Jerome was trying to serve her with papers in New York. She arrived at the hotel and sister to the opera. the first time on Wednesday, Dec. 28, five York, and remained there with a sister a former Mayor of Poughkeepsie. She days after Dodge was brought to New until the next day. She signed the register | was married to Mr. Woodruff in 1880. and took a suite on the third floor, saying that she expected her son Walter, who came an hour later and went to her room, where he found his mother with her sister. presumably Miss Dunne, and his two sisters Catharine and Mary. Mrs. Gelshenen and her party came again on Sunday, Jan. 1, and they stayed until Tuesday, when they went to Hoboken to take the steamer for Europe. Walter sailed with his mother. Mrs. Gelshenen used the telephone frequently in talking to persons in this city and was visited once by a man who was taken to be her lawyer. The telephone calls from New York were invariably for "the lady in No. 29" and her name was never mentioned. She had all of the New York papers every night and morning.

C. W. MORSE'S BOOKS EXAMINED His Confidential Clerk and Stenographer Before Grand Jury.

The books and private papers of Charles W. Morse, the banker, were examined yesterday by the Grand Jury, which is investigating the Dodge-Morse scandal. They were obtained by serving subpœnas duces tecum upon Mr. Morse's confidential clerk and a woman stenographer employed in the private office at 41 Wall street, where National Bank of North America, of which Mr. Morse is a vice-president, is located. It is understood that the subporta servers had some difficulty in performing their task, and it was not until two days ago

Mr. Morse's clerk and stenographer appeared at the Criminal Courts Building yesterday morning and were examined separately before the Grand Jury. The man stenographer even brought her note and check books under examination. The was over both of the witnesses spent some time in the room of Assistant District At- | was quick to respond to his every wish. torney Rand.

The names of the two witnesses, who were regarded as very important, were not given out. It is understood that the purpose of subpoening them was to get them to explain various matters disclosed by the books. All that could be got out of the District Attorney's office yesterday was

Samuel Untermyer, Mr. Morse's counsel refused yesterday to talk about Mr. Morse's connection with the case or to say when Mr. Morse might be expected to return here

Mr. Morse was summoned as a witness in the case last spring, and the Grand Jury tried to get some light on the marital tangle of his wife and himself. Mr. Morse was asked by the foreman of that Grand Jury to aid it in its investigation by answering certain questions, and he refused to answer on the ground that it would tend to incriminate and degrade him. Re-

SUMMER DATS IN WINTER MONTHS. ours to Florida under Pennsylvania Raimoad cort. Leave New York January 31, February and 28. Round trip rate 550. Special train-ir detailed information consult ticket agents, address C. Studds, E. P. A., No. 263 5th Ave., w York.—Adr.

Onickest Line to Cleveland.

New York 5:32 P. M., arrive Cleveland of morning, Cincinnati 1:30 P. M., Indianopo P. M., St. Louis 6:45 P. M., by New York Fine Service. No excess lars.—Ade.

order Goff sustained Morse in his action.
Mr. Morse has not been questioned since MURDER BY TWO YAKEY YAKES

then, and is now in Europe.

What Mr. Jerome is trying to discover and lay before the Grand Jury is the source of the money that was paid out so liberally to Charles F. Dodge. It is by tracing these eves, that he can find out whether there was any conspiracy to annul the Morse marriage. It is understood that the books and papers produced yesterday were left at the District Attorney's office. where accountants have been going over similar exhibits, including the books of one of the law firms employed.

Mr. Morse's two clerks were the only witnesses before the Grand Jury yester-Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. Her name, day. A. H. Hummel turned up asusual in answer to his regular daily subpœna, sat around for a while, and, as usual, was served with a subporna for next day. Ex- Budd and Galligan planned the murder met by a courier. The party will stay at Judge Fursman, who is under subpæna, a notel here overnight, prior to going to didn't appear. The District Attorney does not want him yet. As to the results will join her daughters. She did not appear of his investigation so far, Mr. Jerome and all of his assistants are mum. They expect there will be an indictment before they get through.

WOODRUFF TO MARRY AGAIN. Former Lieutenant-Governor to Wed Miss Isabel Morrison of This City.

It became known vesterday that former Lieut .- Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff of Brooklyn and Miss Isabel Morrison were engaged and would be married either in May or June next. The first Mrs. Woodruff died ten months ago. Mr. Woodruff and his wife met Miss Morrison in Europe three years ago. Miss Morrison later was Mrs. Woodruff's guest at her husband's lodge, Kamp Kilkare, in the Adirondacks. Miss Morrison lives with her mother and eister in the Dorilton apartments, Broadway and Seventy-first street. It is said that Mr. Woodruff, after his marriage, will again occupy his handsome home in Eighth avenue. Brooklyn. Last summer he decided to sell the property, but subsequently changed his mind and rented it for six months. Since then he has lived at the Montauk Club when in Brooklyn and has a room in the Union League in Manhattan, besides apartments in Syracuse.

It is said that Mr. Woodruff recently announced to his son John, who is 23 years old and a graduate of Yale, that he intended to marry Miss Morrison, and the judiciary desire my presence, I will im- young man was pleased. Mr. Woodruff couldn't understand yesterday how the news of his approaching marriage got out.

"Is there any truth in it?" he was asked. "I do not care to discuss it," he said. will neither affirm, nor will I deny it. It is purely a private matter, and I cannot see ow it would concern the public. When I am ready to make such an announcement I will do as I have on other occasions, make the announcement in a proper manner." Syracuse and Miss Morrison's brother is here." employed by the same company. Miss Morrison's father was J. Estevan Morrison, a banker of this city, who died in 1887, Her mother, Mrs. Juana Isabel Morrison, While Jerome Was Trying to Serve Papers is of Spanish descent. On her father's side Miss Morrison is a granddaughter of the late Nicholas D. C. Moller of the firm of Moller & Thebaud. Mr. Woodruff was at the Dorilton last night and took his flancée and her mother

The first Mrs. Woodruff was Cora C. Eastman, the daughter of H. G. Eastman,

Mr. Woodruff's son is also engaged to be married. The bride to be is Miss Eugenie Watson, daughter of Mrs. Atway Watson of Columbus, Ohio. Miss Watson was in Saratoga in September last at the time of the Republican State convention. She was accompanied by Mrs. Rodney Ward, the sister of former Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff. It is understood that young Mr. Woodruff will be married in the late spring or early

HAD MAFIA CREDENTIALS. Italians With Alleged Papers From the Society Here Arrested in Old Forge, Pa. SCHANTON, Pa., Jan. 2.—The most im portent capture made by Chief McAndrew of the Old Forge police in the work of rounding up the members of the Black Hand society was the arrest to-day of Vincenzo Laposi. By the arrest of Laposi the police were able to prove that the Carthe Black Hand society are branches of the Mafia and that the leaders take directions from the headquarters of the Mafia anciety in New York.

Upon Laposi, whose arrest was accomlished at the point of a revolver, were ound credentials to admit him to the ouncils of the branches of the society bearing the Italian words for "The Society of the Mafia; Headquarters, 42 Mott street, New York." Credential cards found in of the Mafia."

Laposi was arrested in a house occupied by an Italian family named Greco on the the duty. road leading to Barbertown. He entered the house, pulled two revolvers from his Dawley had their first call upon Mrs. Chadbooks. There were also private letter books pockets, and announced that he was in possession, and that an body who disputed the new order of authority was given the examination lasted two hours and after it it could eat cold lead. The Greco family accepted his word without argument, and attorney were allowed to enter the jail by Chief McAndrew was summoned quietly and made the arrest. It developed this ference. afternoon that Laposi is wanted for robbing Manzrola, an Italian tailor, on the highway on last Friday night. The prisoner has been held under bail for court

At 42 Mott street there is no evidence of a that the examination had been extremely Mafia headquarters. The second floor is down Eleventh avenue, between Fiftycupied by a Chinese mission and Chinese | fourth and Fifty-fifth streets, last night live on the two upper floors. An Italian Mrs. Mary McPhee saw something which keeps a drug store on the ground floor, but she took to be a bag of coal bounce from he has been there for many years and has a rear wheel. She ran out to investigate, a good reputation.

AMERICAN SUBJECT KILLED. Result of Serious Fighting Between the Moorish Tribes.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUS Times from Tangier says that the Vice- Love followed up the trail and found pieces Consul at Alcazar report that serious intertribal fighting is going on. One American subject has been killed and much property belonging to Europeans has been Latest Marine Intelligence. Arrived: Ss Trinidad, Bermuda, Jan. 7.

FLORIDA'S FAMOUS TRAINS, "N. Y. & Fla. Special," 210 P. M.; Fla. & West Indian Lid, 225 A. M. Unexcelled service via Penn. & Atlantic Coast Line, 1161 B'way, N. Y.

FOUR BULLETS DROP JIM BREN-NAN DEAD ON STREET CORNER.

Assassins Lurked in the Shadow Until He Came, and Sprang in Front of

Two members of the Yakev Yake gang, James Galligan, shot and killed James Brennan, a truck driver, of 100 Oliver street, at the corner of Madison and Catharine streets shortly after midnight this morning. The murderers ran up Madison eet and escaped.

According to the story told by witnesses, some time ago. Both had been heard to threaten Brennan. Brennan is said to have told the police some months ago some things about the doings of the gang. He was under suspicion as an informer and | fleets of many nations in 1893. they got what they thought was confirma-around the corner of Catharine and Madison streets last night waiting for him. They stood in the shadow of the house on the southeast corner until he was about opposite them. Then they jumped out in front of him, pistols in hand, and each fired two shots at him.

Two bullets entered his forehead, one took him in the chest and one in the abdo- The Kearsarge, flagship of Rear Admiral men. He was dead instantly. One of the assassins threw his pistol the same outfit, got into a row in the gallery of Miner's Bowery Theatre last night and came to blows. Employees of the theatre and a policeman ran up and the gang quieted down. One of those who had been mixed up in the fight was Edward Lynch, describing himself as a driver, living at 385 Water street.

Policeman Stafford who was several taken to the station house.

When the show was ended the gang adjourned to the street and continued their quarrel and one of the party shot Lynch in the right leg on the sidewalk in front of the theatre, thereby scattering the crowd that was coming out. The man who did the shooting ran off.

Lynch was taken to Gouverneur Hospital. His wound is not serious. He told the police that he knew who shot him, but Mr. Woodruff is the president of the added: "I'll keep his name to myself. Smith-Premier Typewriting Company of I'll settle with that guy when I get out of

TO NAME NEW JUDGES.

Gov. Adams Will Impore Peabody's Nominations Just Confirmed.

DENVER. Col., Jan. 9 .- While Gov. Peabody has nominated and the Senate o-day confirmed two new Supreme Justices, Alva Adams, who will be inaugurated Governor to-morrow, has announced that Peabody's action is illegal and that he will make the Supreme Court nominations and ask the Senate to confirm his men.

The Senate was tied over the confirmauntil after noon to-day, and Democratic votes were finally required to confirm Peaoody's men. This was the only business done in the Legislature to-day, the House adjourning because of the sudden death of a Republican member.

Gov. Peabody will not file his contest for the Governorship until the new Lieutenant-Governor is sworn in and presides over the Senate. Peabody fears that the retiring Lieutenant-Governor, Haggott, would name Wolcott Republicans and Democrats on the election investigation's and it is said they will receive a cool re committee and that his contest would fail.

MRS. CHADWICK'S JEWELS.

Assertions That She Smuggled $70,000 Worth of Them From Europe.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 9 .- The United States ustoms officials have nearly completed bondale band and the Old Forge band of their investigation into the amount of to have smuggled into this country. Practically every bit of jewelry the woman has purchased in the last few years has been traced, and the officers know whose hands

It is asserted that Mrs. Chadwick made purchases in jewels to the extent of about a Carbondale and Old Forge and letters $250,000, and that fully $70,000 of this was purchased abroad and no duty was ever paid upon it. The amount of duty supposed to be due will aggregate between to-day ordering those now holding the jewelry to report to the collector and pay in his complete vindication

Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick and Attorney wick at the county jail this morning since Sheriff by Judge Wing. The husband and Sheriff Mulhern. The Sheriff accompanied them and did not permit a private con-

WOMAN'S HORRIBLE FIND. Lad, Trying to Get on 11th Ave. Freight

Train, Cut to Pleces. As a train of freight cars was rolling and bent down in the half light to touch it. The thing was wet and warm. She pulled her hand away and found it covered with blood. She looked closer. It was a piece of a human body. When Mrs. McFee got control of herself, he called Policeman Love. The train LONDON, Jan. 10.-A despatch to the had stopped a few yards along the track. of the body strung over all the twelve last cars of the train.

Apparently, the victim, who was afterward identified as Joseph Shedd, 17 years old, had tried to get on the bumpers between the second and third cars and missed his hold. The conductor, Thomas J. Shef flin, knew nothing of the accident until the police told him. He was arrested, how-ever, and bailed out.

Insist upon baring Bu: At's Vanilla .-- Ada

GREAT REVIEW OF WARSHIPS. ISTHE BARGE CANALLAW VOID? HINT AT STATIONERY GRAFT. Secretary Morton and Admiral Dewey

of the ships of the fleet in Hampton Roads

this morning off Fort Monroe by Secretary of the Navy Morton and Admiral Dewey the Dolphin, on which they arrived here from Washington, took a position near Him, Pistol in Hand-Pistolling in Cape Henry, and the ships of the great fleet Front of a Bowery Theatre Earlier. passed out of the Virginia capes, each one saluting as she passed.

No more powerful display of naval who the police say are William Budd and strength was ever assembled under the is depended upon by the anti-canal senti-Stars and Stripes than that reviewed by ment of the State to make it possible to Secretary of the Navy Paul Morton and defeat the $101,000,000 barge canal folly. Admiral Dewey off Old Point Comfort this It was asserted to-night that former Chief afternoon. In offensive and defensive Judge Charles Andrews, now living in ability the fleet was far superior to any ever assembled under the command of one American officer.

first class except one, three cruisers, three monitors and four torpedo boats. The fleet was the strongest that ever assembled in Hampton Roads except the combined

According to the witnesses they hung from Washington, and immediately the ves- will result in the Court of Appeals passing sels composing the fleet began to salute the Secretary's flag, the Secretary being in supreme command. The Kearsarge, the flagship of Rear Admiral Barker, was to the Secretary's flag.

The principal ships in the fleet were: Barker, commander of the Atlantic squadron, and the battleships Kentucky, Illinois, away as far as he could (it was picked up Alabama, Missouri and Iowa, composing in front of 52 Catherine street, eighty feet the Atlantic squadron; the battleship Then both men ran up Madison Texas, flagship of Rear Admiral Sands, commander of the coast squadron, and the monitors Arkansas, Florida and Nevada, blocks away, heard the shots and sent to the composing the squadron; the Newark, Oak street station for the reserves, who flagship of Rear Admiral Sigsbee, comcleared the streets of the crowd attracted | mander of the Caribbean squadron, and by the shooting. Brennan's body was the cruiser Tacoma of that squadron. and the Whipple, Macdonough, Stewart A gang of young toughs, possibly some and Worden, composing the torpedo flotillanue slip made a lot of excitement to-day. Twelve of the big beasts went overboard, and it was a wonder that twice that many passengers didn't precede them.

STEERS STAMPEDE ON FERRY. Twelve Overboard in Rush Caused by a Girl in a Red Coat.

There was much ice on the Camden side of this expected deficiency, it will have solved the Delaware, where the steers were to be the only fing all problems, as affects the landed for a slaughter house. The boat kept bumping in and out. The drove got restless. Then the girl in the red coat | for some years to come. sauntered across the front of the bear One steer let out a snort and went for Let. | favor a $2 tax upon the buying and disposal The others followed:

The boat was backing out at the time for another try at the dock. The girl in the red river. In a second there were twelve steers swimming about in the ice and the rest of the herd owned the boat. Passengers on the outside climbed poles and those in the inside barricaded the doors. ferry hands rescue the floating stock. With the aid of derricks and nooses and men in boats nine were yanked up to a more useful death. Three went down.

Withdrawal of the Charges.

READING, Pa., Jan. 9.—The board of inquiry which is to meet here to-morrow o investigate the charges brought against Bishop Talbot is keeping itself exceedthat more than a half dozen interested shall recommend." ones will be here, and the majority of that number may be lawyers. Those who are expected are not friends of Bishop Talbot, ception at the hands of churchmen in this

A member of the Christ Cathedral vestry

"The presentment has been withdrawn, and little remains to be done. If a meeting is held, it will not be much more than

The meeting was first announced to be lifthe State ran short of funds resort would held in Wood Chapel of Christ Cathedral, be had to the surplus in the treasury. jewelry Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick is alleged of which the Rev. Dr. William P. Orricl is pastor. It is understood that members of the vestry objected to this, and it was transferred to the parlor of the Mansion House. Since the charges have practi cally falled, it is understood that the meeting will be a mere formality and that there will be no inquiry at all. The meeting will be held about 10 A.M. and will be private. Neither Bishop Talbot nor the Rev. Dr. Irvine will be present If the inquiry goes on, friends of Bishop New York. Credental Carlot Society $5,000 and $6,000. Notices were sent out Talbot will waive all technicalities and advise the fullest investigation, confident

YOUNG GOULD BACK AT COLLEGE Hears the Dean Call Hts Pistol Play Foolish, but Not Without Justification.

Kingdon Gould returned to Columbia yesterday and took up his regular work in peace, without comment or interference from any of the sophomores. The members of his class seemed pleased to see him back and many who knew him shook him by the hand. He spent the afternoon working in one of the laboratories.

window.

The empty train was close behind the local and was only a few feet away when Long saw it. Thomas O'Rourke, the motorman, saw a man on the track and put on the emetyency brake, but could not stop the train in time. Long saw he could not reach the platform and jumped clear of the atructure.

in one of the laboratories. In one class Dean Hutton addressed the ing slightly upon the Gould affair, but not mentioning the young man by name, probably in deference to the fact that he was in the room. Dean Hutton said that he thought the shooting had been a little foolish but not altogether without justifi-

Apropos of the cheating at examinations Apropos of the cheating at examinations spoken of in Dr. Butler's letter to the student board of representatives. Dean Hutton said:
"I want you young men to be honest and upright. Be fair and do your best to conserve the good name of the university. There have been men who cribbed freely in examinations, but those men I consider to examinations their degrees, pairly more nor e stolen their degrees - neither more nor yesterday to consider the recommendations of the president. They will meet daily for a week until they get their opinions straight-ened out, and will then report to President

WHEN HOPE IS GONE

With increasing knowledge of the danger aith through carelessiy prepared food, c mers grow more fastidious in their selecti-perfoot" means purity, daintiness, cleanling

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 9 .- After the review THE QUESTION TO BE TAKEN TO THE COURT OF APPEALS.

> Opponents of the Scheme Obtain Opinions From Judge Chas. Andrews and Ellhu Root-Probably No Awarding of Contracts Until This Question Is Settled.

Syracuse, and Elihu Root had written opinions, at the request of those who op-There were seven battleships, all of the pose the construction of a barge canal, to the effect that the barge canal law is unconstitutional. This being the case. it is anticipated that Attorney-General Mayer will be asked by taxpayers who are The Secretary and the Admiral arrived opposed to the canal to take such action as in Hampton Roads aboard the Dolphin will permit of proceedings being begun which plies if there was an agreement on the part upon the constitutionality of the law.

Meanwhile the awarding of the initial barge canal contracts may be deferred the first to salute, the others following until every contention regarding this mountil the last vessel had paid its homage mentous question is settled, not only to that his head will quickly drop. the satisfaction of the advocates of a barge canal, but to the satisfaction of those who oppose it as well.

Mr. Root has seen Gov. Higgins recently. Of course if the law should be declared unconstitutional the people's vote on the question would be void. It is known that the Republicans who have to do with legislation affecting the finances of the State are not taking into account any expenditure under the barge finished. canal law when they consider ways and which Gov. Higgins points out will result during the present year should the expenditure for the next fiscal year amount to as much as for the present year. The CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 9.-Stampeding appropriations for the present year aggresteers on a ferryboat at the Kaighn ave- gate nearly $26,000,000, while the estimated receipts will amount to about $22,000,000 only. These Republican leaders seem to think that if the present Legislature enacts A girl in a red coat caused the trouble. indirect tax legislation which will meet Strue treasury, which will confront them

Consequently nearly all of them seem to of eac. 100 shares of stock on the New York Cock Evolunge, the Consolidated coat went head first into the women's cabin. Ex hunge and in the bucket shops through-The steers couldn't stop their rush and went | out the State. This would be a tax similar clear through the gates and into the to that which was exacted by the Federal Government during the Spanish-American War and would be in the nature of a stamp million dollars a year. These Republican After a bit the deckhands rounded up leaders feel that the proposed tax upon the steers on board and then helped the | dogs would be ridiculous, especially from a political standpoint.

Gov. Higgins returned to Albany at o'clock this afternoon. He expects to send a supplementary message to the Legislat-Brief Session Expected in View of the forests. He has not yet decided on the position he will take with reference to the future of the forests.

"I consider it a very important theme," he said, "and I will want to give it due ingly quiet. It is not generally believed | consideration before I decide on what I "Will you have anything to say on taxation?" the Governor was asked.

"Possibly I shall later on." In reply to questions regarding State finances and the necessity for raising new revenues, the Governor denied that he had said in New York that there would be no return to direct taxation during his administration. All that he had said was that there would be no direct tax this year.

JUMPED FROM ELEVATED.

Ticket Chopper on Coal Hunt Finds Train

Bearing Down on Him-May Die. F. M. Long of 269 West 134th street, ticket chopper at the uptown station of the Ninth avenue elevated road at Desbrosses street, jumped through the space between the tracks last night to avoid being run down by an empty train that was being run to the yard. He was taken to the Hudson street hospital suffering from severe scalp wounds and internal injuries.

He will probably die.

Long had been to the downtown station for a scuttle of coal, and when he reached the uptown station he stopped on the narrow footbridge while a train pulled out. When the rear car had passed Long stepped on the track and started to walk down to a small ladder opposite the ticket seller's first year men in the School of Mines, touch- END OF A MEDICAL ROMANCE. Dr. James J. L. Young Seeks Divorce From Fellow Student He Married.

Keen interest is awakened in the Forest Hill section of Newark in the announcement that Dr. James J. L. Young of 207 Lincoln avenue has applied for a divorce from his young wife, Harriet Marie Ross Young. The papers have been filed in Trenton and the decree is asked for on statutory grounds.

They were married in 1888, when both were studying medicine in this city. It were studying medicine in this city. It said that a well known New York clubman is mentioned as corespondent and that the act complained of was committed in the Fifth Avenue Hotel Sept. 19 last, and that Dr. Young and three friends in evening dress paid a visit to a bridal chamber there on that occasion and smashed a door to get evidence. It is said that Mrs. Young has not been seen at the Lincoln avenue residence since last fall, but the matter of the divorce proceedings has been successfully concealed until how.

THE SEABOARD FLORIDA LIMITED is the handsomest and quirkest Florida train. Leaves New York daily at 1225 noon. Two other high-class trains for Pinchurst, Camden and Florida resorts, Office 1127 Broadway.—Ade.

City Rejects All Bids and Wants No More

Exclusive Brands: The Board of City Record rejected yesterday all the bids opened last month for

The bids were rejected after the board had listened to a statement made by Mr. Cavanagh of the firm of Cavanagh Bros. & Co. the lowest bidder. Mr. Cavanagh said it was impossible for his firm to supply the exact grade of paper demanded by some of the department heads because his firm was "outside the coterie which can purchase these supplies at a fair price. Thereupon Corporation Counsel Delany moved that the bids be rejected with instructions to Supervisor Tracy to draw up less specific specifications.

*But suppose the heads of the department ask for some particular make of pens or paper?" asked Mr. Tracv. "If they are not satisfied with what the city supplies let them buy their particular brands out of their own pockets," retorted Mayor McClellan. Mr. Delany said it was no wonder that the city had to pay exorbitant prices for sup-of manufacturers to sell only to favored "If I find a man in my department," he added, "who has been influenced to ask for any particular description of stationery

because it is patented I can assure the board

SUBWAY DONE TO CORTLANDT ST. Fulton Street Station May Open Monday

One Minute Expresses Afterward. Workmen began yesterday to dismantle the big derrick platform stretching across Broadway in front of St. Paul's Chapel. The bridge has been used for bringing to the surface the material excavated in building the section of the subway extension between the Post Office and Liberty street. This part of the road has been

The new station at Fulton street is so means for meeting the $4,000,000 deficit, nearly completed that the Interborough officials expect to be able to open it to the public not later than next Monday. For the time being the station will be used as a feeder to the main subway, and the tracks, which extend as far as Cortlandt street in their finished state, will be used for the who was summoned collected at the bar switching of express trains.

By means of these extra switching facilities it will be possible to run express trains in the rush hours on less than a minute

BIG STICKS IN THE PARADE. Kentucky Man Wants a Lot of Colonels to

Carry Them at the Inaugural. LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 9 .- R. R. Perry ie Kentucky Republican editor, whose throat Congressman Champ Clark of Missouri threatened to cut at a chautauqua meeting in Indiana last summer because Mr. Perry protested against Clark's public utterances that Kentucky Republicans indorsed murder, inasmuch as they did not want ex-Gov. Taylor and Charles Finley returned to be tried for the murder of William Goebel, has made a proposition to Kentuckians that they go to the inauguratax. It would raise between five and six | tion of Roosevelt in a body and each carry in the parade a "big stick" cut from the Kentucky forests. Perry says all the Colonels, officeholders and gentlemen will be in line.

MRS. MARCUM GETS $8,000. Verdict for Damages in Her Suit Over Her

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 9 .- At Winchester this afternoon the jury in the Marcum assassination damage suit returned a verdict against County Judge James Hargis

mon Council, authorizing the city of Boston to acquire and maintain plants for the manufacture and distribution of gas and electricity for lighting purposes. The vote

When the order came up Alderman Froth ingham said that as it was a very important measure and as one of the members of the board was absent he moved that it be laid on the table. On a yea and nay vote the motion was lost. As soon as the vote was announced Alderman Linehan moved for a reconsideration, and this motion was lost. The motion was made to prevent there being any reconsideration of the vote hereafter. In passing the municipal gas plant order the board followed the example of the Common Council, which has gone on record as heartily in favor of the plan. Of the nine Aldermen who voted for the order to-day five voted for it when it came up before the old board. Cold Wave Coming From the West.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9 .- An extremely cold wave is spreading over the central Northwestern States to-night, the mercury registering from zero at Chicago to 36 below at Bismarck. The cold is accompanied by a stinging wind. A heavy snowstorm pre-vails in southern Illinois and western Kentucky, Tennessee and parts of Arkansas.

Subway Engineers to Dine S. L. F. Deyo. The engineers of the Subway Construction Company will give a dinner to-night in honor of S. L. F. Deyo, who has been Contractor McDonald's chief engineer since work on the subway was started. It will be in the Park Row Building, and a loving cup will be presented to the guest of honor. Equipped and Launched on the World. A baby girl was found abandoned in front of 20 East Ninety-second street last night. The child was warmly clad and beside it was a basket containing two bottles of fresh milk and a bottle of medicine. Baby, who is three months old, is in Bellevue.

Senator Clark of Wyoming Renominated CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 9 .- Senator Clarence Don Clark was unanimously renominated for Senator by the Republican legis-

THE PARTICULAR NEW YORKER uses the Pennsylvania Rallroad to Cleveland Through sleeper leaves West 23rd Street 4.55 P. M. daily. Limited train; no extra fare: arrives Cleve-

PRICE TWO CENTS: TO ANNUL DUKE MARRIAGE.

SUIT BEGUN AND THE BRIDE'S RE ORD LOOKED UP.

She Came From a Buffalo Orphan Asylum, Once Shot at Murat Masterson, Swore That Col. Charley Spencer Married Her to Jeweller Hopkinson, Was Formerly Known as Mrs. Powell-Her Chum, Mrs. Desplaines, a Lexow Witness-Duke Says He Can't Remember Marrying Her-Long Spree at Hotel.

A suit for the annulment of the marriage of Brodie L. Duke, who is now in a sanitarium at Flushing, L. I., to the woman who called herself Alice L. Webb, has been instituted in the Supreme Court by Nicoll, Anable & Lindsay, attorneys for Duke's relatives. As was learned yesterday the papers in this cuit were served upon Mrs. Duke at the Park Avenue Hotel on Saturday, the day after her husband had been committed to Bellevue.

The allegation is made in the suit that Duke was mentally irresponsible both at the time of his marriage and for some time prior to it. Detectives employed by the lawyers and by Mr. Duke's son and brothers have been for some weeks past gathering evidence which will be used in this suit and which has already been put at the disposal of the District Attorney for any action which he may see fit to take. This evidence goes to show that for some weeks prior to the marriage of Duke and the Webb woman at Dr. Parkhurst's church on Dec. 19 they had been living at the Hotel Winton, a Raines law hotel at Park avenue and 110th street. With them was Agnes Desplaines, Mrs. Duke's "companion," who, it is alleged, was at one time housekeeper for the resort known as the "House of All Nations," has run other places in this town which have been under the eye of the police, and was a witness before the Lexow committee. She and the Webb woman, it appears, have been friends for years.

According to the detectives the two women and sundry acquaintances, male and female, had one grand spree at Duke's expense while at the Harlem hotel. Everything was charged to Duke, and a nurse the bill for his services. It was while these goings on were at their height that Duke and the Webb woman went to Dr. Parkhurst's church on Dec. 19 and got the Rev. Mr. Coe to marry them, a "Dr. Hirst" and one "C. W. Thompson" going with them as witnesses. Who these two men were has not been learned yet. After the marriage Duke and his wife went back to the Winton, where they stayed until Dcs. 28, when they went to the Park Avenue Estel.

They first appeared at the Winton with Duke, the detectives say, on Dec. 3. While they were there, efforts were made to raise money on three promissory notes made by Duke for $5,000 apiece. An attempt was made to get money on these through Collector Charles H. Treat, but that failed. The notes are now in the possession of R. H. Kaufman, a broker of 42 Broadway, who had agreed to try to negotiate them. Duka since he got to the sanitarium, is said to have told his brother and son that he remembers nothing about getting married, and not much about anything that has happened in the last few weeks. Nobody has been able to find out just what the experience had cost him. Mr. Duke is expected to be able to tell a somewhat clearer story later, and it may be that the District Attorney will make use of the information which has been lodged with him. No formal complaint has been made as yet. Mr. Jerome said yesterday.

dict against County Judge James Hargis and Sheriff Edward Callahan of Breathitt county, giving the widow $8,000. She sued for $100,000. Ex-State Senator Alex Hargis and B. F. French, the other defendants, were exonerated.

Callahan and Hargis will now be indicted for instigating the murder of J. B. Marcum.

BOSTON CITY LIGHTING.

The Board of Aldermen Votes for the Municipal Ownership Plan.

Boston, Jan. 9.—The new Board of Aldermen this afternoon passed the order, recently introduced by Councilman McCullough of Ward 13 and passed by the Common Council, authorizing the city of Boston to according to a story told vesterday, one Duke is not as rich a man as ha

Then the detectives were put on the case. According to a story told yesterday, one of the Duke brothers, presumably Benjamin N. Duke, who lives at the Hoffman House, was called up on the telephone at that hotel by a woman, who said:

"This is your new sister-in-law. I called up to tell you that I have married your brother Brodie. I want to tell you we are very happy. Mr. Duke wants to talk to you himself." Mr. Duke heard some conversation and then a voice which he recognized as his brother's came over the 'phone. It said: "This little Texas girl has got me, and got

Benjamin N. Duke asked his brother if he was satisfied, or something to that effect, he was satisfied, or something to that effect, and there was a conversation at the other end of the telephone in which he heard women's voices. Then his brother said: "Yes, it's all right, I'm satisfied."

The Dukes did not at that time know where Brodis Duke was. What really started the detectives to work was the knowledge which came to his family that Duke had gone back to Durham and tried to wind up his affairs there, among other things asking that about $100,000 worth of securities he held there be forwarded to him in this city. in this city.

When the lawyers and detectives learned of the marriage they set about finding out who the bride was. According to informa-tion which has since been collected she brought suit in 1893 against George W.
Hopkinson, a wealthy perfumer, for divorce and alimony, as a common law wife, alleging that Col. Charles S. Spencer of the Ninth Reviewort had performed a Quaker cere-ing that Col. Charles S. Spencer of the Mich.

Regiment had performed a Quaker ceremony." Hopkinson was deferded by Howe & Hummel, and through them set up as defence that the woman was not his wife and that she had signed an agreement prior to the action forfeiting her rights as such. on the trial she admitted that she had signed a release for $1,500. Her father at that date was William R. Webb of Buffalo, not William H. Webb of New York, and it was brought up in a not William H. Webb of New York, and it appeared that she was brought up in a Buffalo orphan asylum. Affidavits were presented to show that in May, 1890, she was living with Murat Masterson of Arizona in a flat in West Thirty-sixth street, and on the 13th of that month shot at him be-cause he was jealous of a visitor of hera named Hardman.

At that time Masterson told the police named Hardman.

At that time Masterson told the police he was a mining man worth $5,000,000. She said she was his cousin and was in business with him. He denied it. She was taken to court, but the case was dropped. Justice Lawrence dismissed her suit agentst Horkinson.

suit against Hopkinson.
Some years later "Miss Webb," now
Mrs Duke, turned up as the wife of E. H. WHEN YOU ARE SICK USE H. T. Dowey & Sons Co., 185 Pullon St., D. X